P2回答策略

- 逐点回答：从上到下，一点一点回答
- 做除法：2分钟---12-15句话
- 每点---3-4句话
- $P2=4*P1$

- 如何扩展？
- 1. 前因后果、逻辑递推
- 2. 多给细节、多举例子：数字+列举+宽泛到具体+举例

微博：杨帅-贵学

公众微信：Ielts-shuaige

版权所有，盗版必究！

- 3. 回顾过去（最简单、最有效）：在某一点或某些点中讲一个曾经的故事（时间、地点、人物、事件、感受，注意讲故事时的“细节描述+时间顺序”）
- For example, ... / For instance, ... / I remember (vividly/clearly) ... / Actually, last year ... / You know, two months ago ... / Like last week...
- what you did at the party
- why you enjoy traveling with friends
- what you can learn from the program
- what you can do with this app

微博：杨帅-贵学

公众微信：Ielts-shuaige

- 4. 平行扩展+黄金“三”原则：有些“点”可以给出三个“观点”——what you often do together/what the book is about/what you liked about the city/why he or she is famous
- Well, there are a couple of reasons why I went there. First of all ... Plus ... Also
- Well, there are loads/tons of things we often do together....
For starters ... Also ... Besides ...
- Um, I think she is extremely famous across the world primarily because ... Another reason is ... Apart from that ...

- Um, earlier this year, I went to Japan with my girlfriend. (具体) Actually, to be precise, we went to Hokkaido and we were there from the 1st to the 6th of January. (原因) You know, my girlfriend had always been a big fan of Japanese culture and she could even speak Japanese fluently, (结果) so she had been longing to go to Japan for ages. We chose to go to Hokkaido (原因) because it was in winter, and everything there was covered in a layer of white which was so beautiful.

- (宽泛) As for what we did there ...well, um, we did a few things. (1) For starters, we would stay at a different hotel each night and all of them had hot springs. Actually, that was a major part of the trip. We would go and totally relax in the hot springs each night. (2) Plus, on the fifth day of our trip, we went to Sapporo. We did a lot of shopping, especially for cosmetics.

- Um, you know, (1) I would like to go there again primarily because of the views. They really took my breath away on my first day there. (具体) You could see snow everywhere and it seemed like the whole world was covered in white. (2) Another reason is my parents haven't been abroad before, (结果) so I think Hokkaido could be the first foreign place they go to. (3) Of course, I shouldn't forget to mention the hot springs. They're what I've been missing the most since I came back.

- 现在
- We took hundreds of photos in Hokkaido and after we came back, I developed them and put them in a photo album. Every once in a while, I take it out and recall the fun we had there.
- 未来
- Speaking of Hokkaido, I guess I would go there with my parents next winter. Actually I haven't talked with them about it yet. Hot springs are really beneficial to people's health, so my parents would enjoy them a lot.

- Um, you know, when I was in high school, I learned Hip-hop dance on a website which is quite similar to Youtube. It's youku. (原因) In high school, I had no choice but to study on a daily basis (结果) and I felt like life was not fun at all. (结果) So I decided to learn Hip-hop dance (原因) and I believed it would be a great way for me to unwind.
- How I learned it ...um, well, (注意给出细节) basically, every day after finishing my homework, I would learn some Hip-hop moves from Youtube. To be precise, the style I tried to master was Popping. You know, you move like a robot and that's Popping. I would look at a dancer doing a few moves and then I would click on pause and try to copy everything. So yeah, this is how I learned it.

- Um I think it was extremely interesting to learn it then primarily because I was really happy dancing and sweating. Although I haven't performed for anyone, I feel on top of the world every time I dance. (现在) Now, I still dance a lot, but I only do it when I'm on my own. You know, I have an empty room in my apartment where there's a big mirror and I just practice there.
- (未来) Perhaps, in the future, I will try to perform for others, but I don't think I can do it now. I guess what I have to do is practice more and maybe one day, when I think I'm ready, I will go out there and surprise everybody.

- Actually, I've been reading a book called The Tipping Point lately and I still haven't finished it. It's written by my favorite writer Malcolm Gladwell.
- The Tipping Point was recommended by an American friend of mine, Michael. (原因) He told me it was a page-turner and I should really give it a read.

- As the name of the book suggests, this book is about how an idea or message reaches a tipping point and becomes extremely popular or memorable. (举例) For instance, there used to be a cigarette infomercial in the US that contained a minor grammatical mistake in its tag line. Sorry, I can't remember what it was, but it effectively made its ad quite unforgettable and so the tobacco company made a huge profit from it. In addition to this, there are tons of other examples in the book to tell readers how to market a product better, how to teach students better and even how to make a TV show appeal to more viewers.

- So, yeah, this is what I learned from the book. I haven't actually applied anything from the book to my work, but I guess perhaps in the future, when I deliver a presentation or something, I will be able to make my point better. Hopefully.
